

Christ the Saviour School

The 'Big Write'

Summer I, 2019

Friday, 26th April, 2019

Should children have strict bedtimes?

Possible genre:

Balanced argument

Letter to family member: Why I should go to bed when I want.

Instructions - 'A guide to getting a good night's sleep'

Challenging ideas you may wish to explore:

What happens when you don't sleep?

Links to health and wellbeing.

You could try to use: a variety of nouns, adverbs and adjectives to describe sleep

Safe search - What is another word for sleep?

Friday, 3rd May, 2019

If penguins could fly....

Watch the video in the link.

Possible genre:

Dialogue between animals swapping habitats

News report: Shocked residents of South America get a polar visitor!

Diary Entry: 'The Day I realised I could fly'.

Challenging ideas you may wish to explore:

Hoaxes - links to famous hoaxes

You could try to use:

Powerful adverbs

Penguins fly to South America

Friday, 10th May, 2019

You wake up here....

Genre:

Poem - Nature/Springtime

Setting description

Challenging ideas you may wish to explore:

Importance of nature

Protecting our environment

Responsibility to keep the earth healthy

You could try to use: A range of adjectives

Friday, 17th May, 2019

I found a mysterious ring on the dusty floor. When I put it on something really strange happened.....

Possible genre:

Story

Diary entry

Magazine article

Challenging ideas you may wish to explore:

Should you take things that don't belong to you?

You could try to use:

A variety of punctuation

Friday, 24th May, 2019

Why do we need bees?

*Please watch video

Possible genres:

Report - All about Bees

Letter: To a person in power

Newspaper article: Why we NEED to save the bees

Diary entry - A day in the life of a bee

Challenging ideas you may wish to explore:

Habitat loss

Human impact on the environment

You could try to use: powerful, persuasive language

Please watch: Why we need bees