

Questions

Ethos

- How do we encourage pupils to see humility as a strength?
- How do we encourage pupils and adults to ask for help when they need it?
- How do we give opportunities to pupils to serve others and to understand the importance of supporting roles and mundane tasks?

Worship

- How does worship help pupils to appreciate Jesus' humility and to reflect upon how this might inform their own values?
- How does worship encourage pupils to give true worth to God and to give thanks for who they are and what they achieve?
- How does worship help to develop the pupil's understanding of the implications of the Christian doctrine of the Incarnation?

Curriculum

- How do you help pupils to understand and appreciate the views of others in all curriculum areas?
- Where do pupils learn about people who have demonstrated service to others and how are they helped to understand that these could provide examples for their own lives?
- How do we encourage humility regarding the limits of our knowledge and to recognise that our current opinions may be mistaken?

Leadership

- What do you count as true achievement and success?
- What practical actions are the equivalent of 'washing the feet' of others?
- How can those responsible for decision making maintain a balance between being sure of their own convictions and being open to the differing insights and opinions of others?