

Questions

Ethos

- How do you encourage and promote relationships of trust in the school?
- How do pupils learn to make and trust their own judgements?
- How does the school deal with situations when trust is broken?

Worship

- What aspects of the trustworthiness of God are celebrated and explored in worship?
- How are the Psalms used to develop the pupils' understanding of what it means to trust in God?
- In what ways do you use examples of Jesus' trust in God to develop the pupils' understanding of trust?

Curriculum

- Where do pupils learn about how central trust is to society? Where do they learn how trust may be built between groups of people on opposing sides or from different backgrounds?
- How are pupils equipped to know who and what to trust?
- How are children helped to understand that marriage is founded on trust and that marriage is an important context in which human trust can be developed?

Leadership

- What do you feel are the most important things with which you have been entrusted as leaders of the school?
- How do you model trustworthiness in your roles as leaders?
- How far are you able to let go and trust in the ability and integrity of others?