

Questions

Ethos

- How are pupils made aware of the values upon which the school is based?
- How are pupils helped to recognise the wisdom of their elders and how are teachers helped to recognise the wisdom of young people?
- How are pupils encouraged to examine the values upon which their attitudes, aspirations and decisions are based?

Worship

- How does worship help pupils to understand what it means to say that God is the source of all true wisdom?
- How are pupils helped to reflect upon the wisdom of Jesus and to see how it challenges many of the values in our secular society?
- How does worship help pupils to grow in understanding of themselves?

Curriculum

- How are pupils given the opportunity to encounter and to learn from the wisdom of all faiths?
- How are pupils made aware that wisdom can be of many kinds and can belong to people of all ages and all walks of life?
- Where and how are pupils helped to understand that much of our knowledge is provisional and open to change?

Leadership

- What are the characteristics of a wise leader?
- What are the sources of wisdom in your school community? How can you ensure that each is heard and valued?
- In what ways are your discussions and your decision-making processes structured to ensure that the decisions that are made are wise?