What words would you use to replace the ones in the text?

'Here we go, then!' cried George, jumping up from the table. 'A magic medicine it shall be!'

'So give me a bug and a jumping flea,

Give me two snails and lizards three,

And a slimy squiggler from the sea,

And the poisonous sting of a bumblebee,

And the juice from the fruit of the ju-jube tree,

And the powdered bone of a wombat's knee.

And one hundred other things as well
Each with a rather nasty smell.

I'll stir them up, I'll boil them long,

A mixture tough, a mixture strong.

And then, heigh-ho, and down it goes,

A nice big spoonful (hold your nose) Just gulp it down and have no fear.

Scene 3 Inside the Cave

Narrator Night fell before they had finished eating. The cave was a very gloomy place. The only light was coming from the glowing embers of the fire in the middle of the floor. Nik and Andreas kept watch at the doorway. Suddenly the ground began to tremble and shake. They could hear boulders crunching and stones crashing down the cliffs into the sea below.

Alex (.....) It's an earthquake!

Odysseus It sounds more like the footsteps of a giant.

Nik (.....) Look out, look out!

Andreas (.....) There is a giant coming!

Nik He's as big as twenty men.

Alex (.....) That's big!

Andreas (.....) He's so big that he's using a tree for a walking stick.

Thursday

Remember the features of a play script and use brackets to include your stage directions. Maybe ask an adult to help you act it out!!!

'There!' he said aloud. 'That should do it!'

'George!' came the screechy voice from the next room. 'Who are you talking to in there? What are you up to?'

'Nothing, Grandma, absolutely nothing,' he called back.

'Is it time for my medicine yet?'

'No, Grandma, not for about half an hour.'

'Well, just see you don't forget it.'

'I won't, Grandma,' George answered. 'I promise I won't.'
