Endurance

is keeping going and not giving up even when things are difficult.

The story of Nehemiah so far...

Nehemiah
and the people had begun to rebuild the wall.

Jerusalem City Walls

Jerusalem
was a large city!

There were some people who made fun of Nehemiah's efforts to rebuild the wall.

Nehemiah's
enemies
stirred up
trouble.

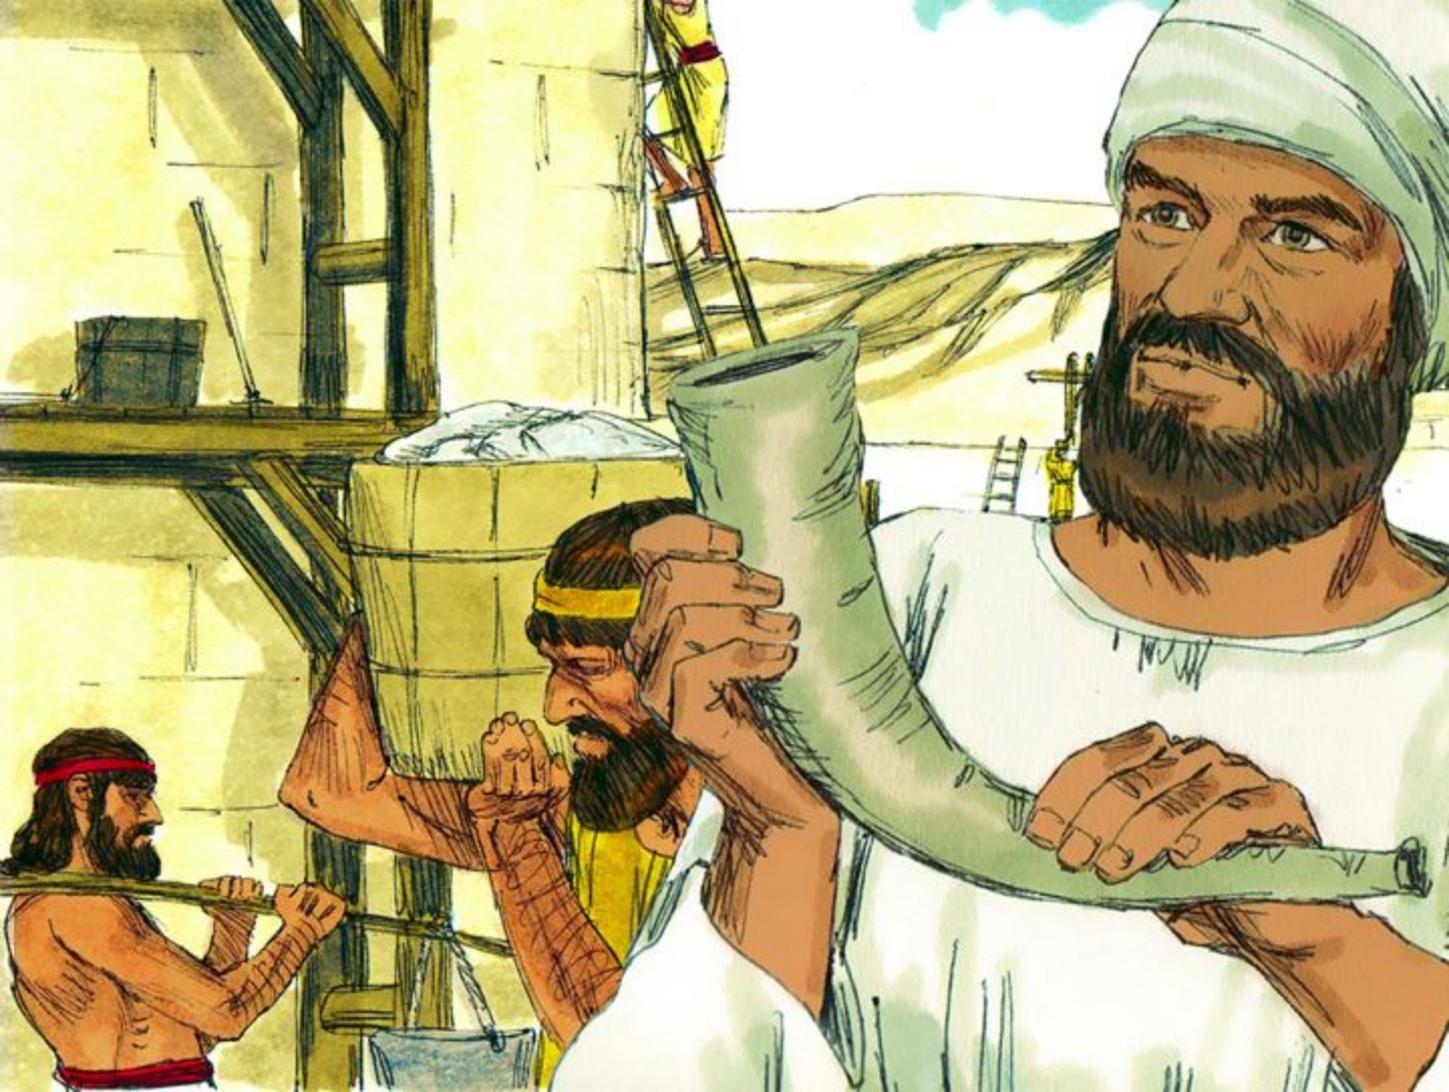

The
people of Jerusalem
felt like
giving up.

“Don't give
up,
remember
the Lord.”

Nehemiah
put guards
on the wall
to protect
the
builders.

Nehemiah put
a man with a trumpet on
the walls to
sound the alarm if
there was an attack!

And so the work was able to continue..

...until the
walls were
finished!

We can keep going...

By speaking encouraging words to one another.

By asking God for help in prayer.

By working together with others.

Can we be like Nehemiah?

Let's listen to others and speak encouraging words to
each other this week!

Dear Father God,

Thank you for Nehemiah, thank you that he did not give up when he was faced with difficult things.

Help us follow Nehemiah's example. Help us to support one another and work together when things are difficult.

Give us encouraging words to speak to our friends and family. Thank you that you help us every day.

In Jesus name, Amen.

Use the pictures below to help you retell the story of Nehemiah that you heard yesterday!

Endurance

Endurance is keeping going and not giving up even when things are difficult.

Nehemiah spoke encouraging words to the people to help them keep going when things were hard.

Reflect:

- When has someone spoken encouraging words to you?
- What did they say, how did it make you feel and how did it help you?
- Who could you speak encouraging words to this week?
- Think about what Nehemiah said, “Don't give up, remember the Lord.” What might you say to encourage someone this week?

Pray:

Thank God for those who have encouraged you to keep going.

Ask God to show you who you can speak encouraging words to this week.

Ask God to give you the words to say.

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be Thy name, Thy kingdom come,
Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation and deliver us from evil,
for thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, forever and ever,

Amen.
