HOPE

Expecting?

Wanting?

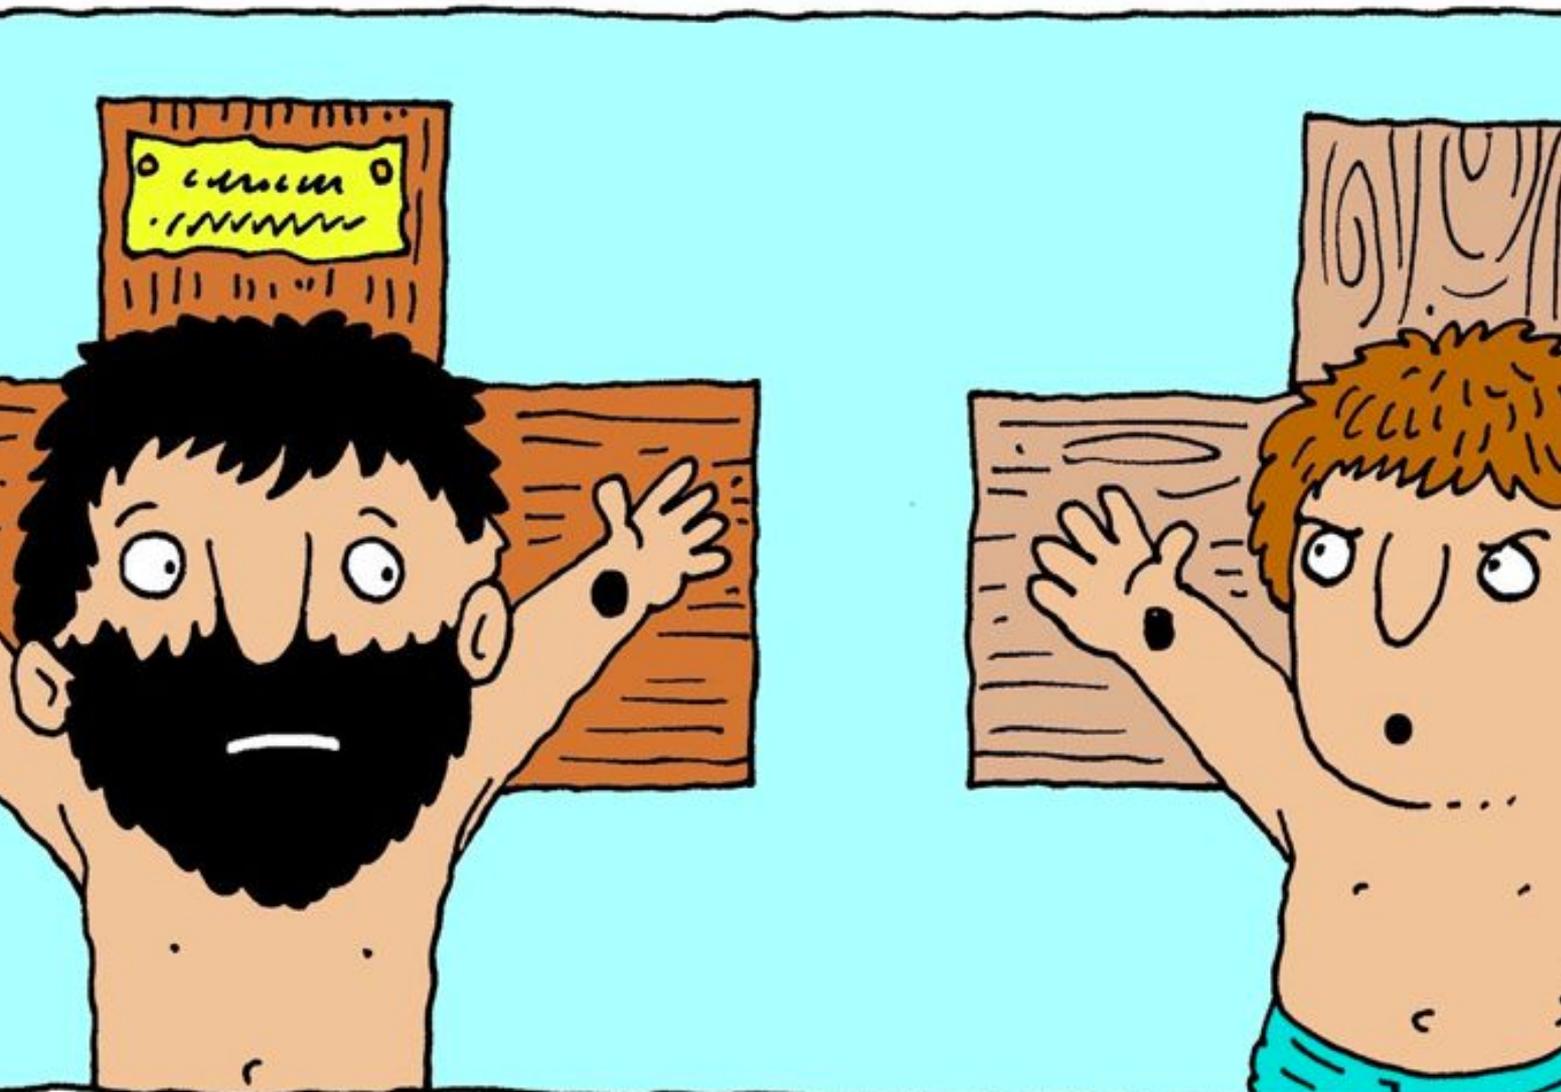

Wishing?

Two thieves were punished with Jesus.

The crowd made fun of Jesus and shouted insults at him.

One of the robbers spoke meanly to Jesus too.

The second robber replied, "We have done many things wrong!"

The second thief was sorry for his sins and he knew who Jesus was.

Today you will be with me in heaven!

Hope

A confident expectation that God will keep his promises to us.

- He promises to forgive us
- He promises us eternal life in heaven

Dear Father God,

Thank you for the hope of the Easter story.

Thank you that we can be confident that you love us and that you will always forgive us when we are sorry.

Thank you that we have the certain hope of heaven, just like the thief on the cross.

Help us to be people of hope who speak words of hope to others this week.

In Jesus name, Amen.

Pro Deo et Ecclesia

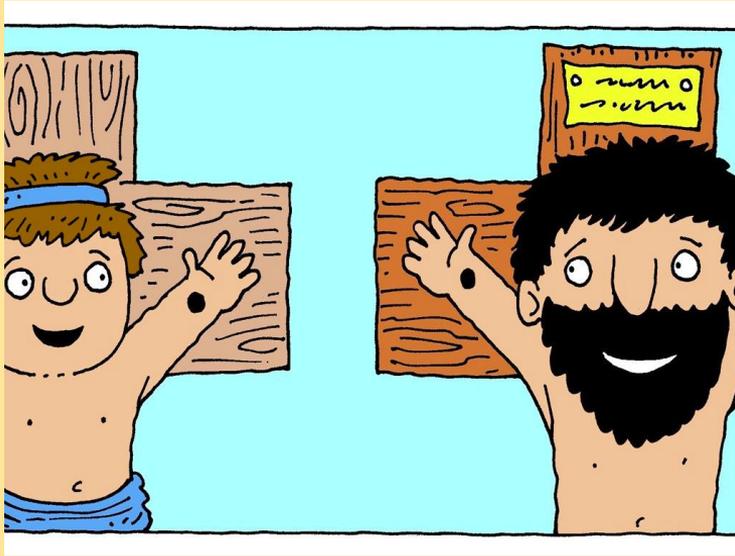

Retell the story of the thief on the cross to your partner!

The thieves on the cross were both in a very hopeless situation.

One of the thieves was sorry for what he had done wrong. What did Jesus say to the thief that gave him hope?

Jesus told the thief that on that very day he would be in heaven with Jesus!

Reflect: How do you think the thief felt when he heard Jesus' words?

Hope

in the bible is much more than a vague wish, it is the confident expectation that God will keep his promises to us.

God promises to love us, to forgive us and to have a place in heaven ready for us !

Reflect: How does it make you feel to know the Easter story offers these hopes not just to the thief on the cross but to all of us?

Pray: Hope

- Thank God for the hope of the Easter Story
- Thank God that just like the thief we have the certain hope of God's love, God's forgiveness and a place in heaven forever.
- If you feel uncertain of God's love and forgiveness for you, ask him to help you to truly know that hope in a special way this Easter.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation and deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, forever and ever,

Amen.
