Pro Deo et Ecclesia

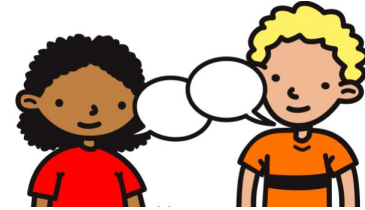

Listen to the hymn together - you can sing along if you would like to!

This hymn is written as if Jesus is speaking the words to us. The hymn asks us to do lots of different things, using the repeated question "Will you..."

Can you name at least three things the hymn asks us to do?

Here are just some of them:
"Will you..."

Choose one of the things the hymn asks you to do to discuss as a class. What do you think it means? How could we do that in our everyday lives?

- Come and follow me
- Care for cruel and kind
- Let me answer prayer
- Love the 'you' you hide
- Quell the fear inside
- Set the prisoners free
- Kiss the leper clean
- Use the faith you've found to reshape the world around

Reflection:

The hymn calls Christians to follow in Jesus' footsteps. Think about one thing you could do this week to follow Jesus' example.

Prayer:

Thank God for Jesus and the ways that Jesus showed his love and care for us and the world.
