Pro Deo et Ecclesia

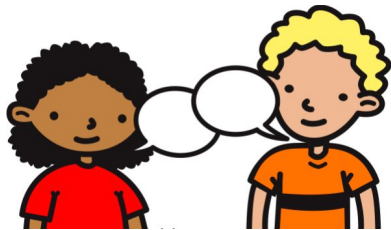

Listen to the hymn and sing along if you would like to.

Chorus:

Dance then, wherever you may be,
I am the lord of the Dance, said he.
And I'll lead you all wherever you may be,
And I'll lead you all in the dance said he.

- Who do you think is the Lord of the Dance?
- What do you think the hymn writer means by 'the dance'?
- What does it mean to 'Dance then, wherever we may be'?

The Lord of the Dance is Jesus!

This is not a name used for Jesus in the bible but the hymn writer has used picture language (metaphor) to describe life as a 'dance'.

The hymn calls us to follow Jesus, wherever we are; he is the Lord of the Dance, he will lead us. We are called to follow him in the 'dance' of life.

Reflection:

How does the hymn make you feel? Is the image of life as a 'dance' a joyful one?

Prayer:

Thank God for Jesus, the Lord of the Dance, and ask for God's help to follow him.
