Pro Deo et Ecclesia

Listen to the hymn and sing along if you would like to.

I danced in the morning when the world was begun,
And I danced in the moon and the stars and the sun,
And I came down from heaven and I
danced on the earth -
At Bethlehem I had my birth.

Who is this verse talking about? Who is the 'I'? Give a reason for your answer.

The verses of the hymn are written as if Jesus wrote them - Jesus is the 'I'.

This bible teaches us that Jesus was there when the world was created.

This is why the first verse says:
I danced in the morning when the
world was begun

This bible teaches us that Jesus left heaven and came down to earth, he was born as a baby in Bethlehem.

That is why the first verse says
And I came down from heaven and I
danced on the earth -
At Bethlehem I had my birth.

The hymn is telling the story of Jesus' life or 'dance'.

Reflection:

Reflect on what it must have been like for Jesus to come down from heaven to live on the earth.

Prayer:

Give thanks for Jesus, who was there when the world was created and who then came down to earth to live among us.
